Your Daddy's Boots

Dustin Lynch

Girl you look so pretty in your wedding day white dancing with another man but thats alright the way he's spinning you around could stop the whole roomI'm gonna have a helluva time tryin' to fill your daddy's bootsHe's got a heart of gold, right hand like a vise same mantel sunday morning that saturday night barb wire tough and cowboy cool I'm gonna have a helluva time tryin'
to fill your daddy's bootsHe was the first to hold your hand the first to dry your tears
we had a man to man and now I'm taking it from here I made him a promise
and girl I promise you I'll always do the best that I can doI'm gonna have a helluva time tryin' to fill your daddy's bootsYou said theres things about him that you see in me but he's the kinda man i want to be gotta give a man credit when credit is dueI'm gonna have a helluva time tryin'
to fill your daddy's bootsHe was the first to hold your hand
we had a man to man and now I'm taking it from hereI made him a promise
and girl i promise you I'll always do the best that i can do
i'm gonna have a helluva time tryin' to fill your daddy's bootsGirl you look so pretty in your wedding day white dancing with another man ohhh but thats alrightthe ways he's spinning you around could stop the whole roomI'm gonna have a helluva time tryin'
to fill your daddy's bootsI'm gonna have a helluva time tryin' to fill your daddy's boots
