

Amen

Andra Day

[Verse 1]

I can't remember why I'm feeling this way
I guess I should be crying but my heart just won't obey
It feels strange to be happy as I lie here on the rooftop in the rain
I say

[Chorus]

Amen
To all the crazy things that happened that made me who I am
I say amen
To everyone who ever hurt me
I'm stronger 'cause of them
Amen

[Verse 2]

I'm not worrying 'bout tomorrow
I'm forgetting yesterday
Just savouring the moment in this unfamiliar place
And I'm feeling like the velvet in a beat-up guitar case
And so, I'll say

[Chorus]

I say amen
To all the crazy things that happened that made me who I am
I say amen
To everyone who ever hurt me
I'm stronger 'cause of them
Amen

[Bridge]

Oh, life is so bizzare
Why do we have to be so hard on ourselves?
I think I found a way to smile and be OK with myself
With myself

[Chorus]

Amen
To all the crazy things that happened that made me who I am
Amen
To everyone who ever hurt me

I'm stronger 'cause of them
And I might have not the answers, but the questions make more sense
Amen
