

Home (feat. Bonn)

Martin Garrix & Bonn

Oh, I was hiding from the pain
But now I'm tired of running
Felt like the gods forgot my name In my head
I didn't know what I was looking for
We got so close to something beautiful
And now I'm never gonna let you go
You go, you go
Home, take me home
Back to my roots
Yeah it's been so long
Hey, I've found a way
Back to the streets where they know my name
You know I've been all around, all around
But you were always on my mind, on my mind
Home, take me home
Back to my roots
Yeah it's been so long, yeah
Home, take me home
Back to my roots
Yeah it's been so long, yeah
Oh, I was falling from my high
And I came down to nothing
Feels like the gods left me behind
In my head
I didn't know what I was looking for
We got so close to something beautiful
And now I'm never gonna let you go
You go, you go
Home, take me home
Back to my roots
Yeah it's been so long
Hey, I've found a way
Back to the streets where they know my name
You know I've been all around, all around
But you were always on my mind, on my mind
Home, take me home
Back to my roots
Yeah it's been so long, yeah
(Been so long, been so long)
(Been so long, long, long)
(Been so long, been so long)
(Been so long, long, long)

Home, take me home
Back to my roots
Yeah it's been so long, yeah
