

Going Out Like That

Reba McEntire

It's been awhile since she put that red dress on and slip into those high heels
She's got a couple of guys blowing up her phone and she loves the way that feels You'd never know she was going through a break up
There ain't a single tear messing up her make up
He thought she'd be sitting home crying,
but she ain't going out like that.
She's had enough of feeling like dying,
she ain't going out like that.
Everybody, here comes the life of the party,
yeah, she is.
He might have left her brokenhearted,
but she ain't going going out like that.
She's got her hands up dancing like the floors on fire.
Yeah she's the hottest thing in here.
Guess she finally got tired of being sick and tired.
Now she's looking like she don't care.
She was hurting, Well she must of forgot.
She's smiling while she's throwing back shots.
He thought she'd be sitting home crying,
but she ain't going out like that.
She's had enough of feeling like dying,
she ain't going out like that.
Everybody, here comes the life of the party,
yeah, she is.
He might have left her brokenhearted,
but she ain't going going out like that.
He thought she'd be sitting home crying,
but she ain't going out like that.
She's had enough of feeling like dying,
she ain't going out like that.
Everybody, here comes the life of the party,
yeah, she is.
He might have left her brokenhearted,
but she ain't going going out like that
going out like that.
Everybody, here comes the life of the party,
Everybody, here comes the life of the party,
yeah, she is.
