

All In (feat. Kix Brooks)

Colt Ford

Were going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.
Neon lights and damn good times, thats what Im feeling.

Take out the keys, unlock the door

Now we aint stopping til we hit the floor.

Were going all in, all in tonight.

Well, it looks like a country party, everybody grab somebody,

Short or tall, fat or thin, everybodys all in.

Gonna have a whole damn redneck throw down,

A shot for shot, showdown, right here or the old town.

Do you wanna dance a little two step to the field?

Or get your drink on, cause tonight is the night youve been waiting for,

Hit the floor, bartender, one more, I think Ill never go in.

Were going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.

Neon lights and damn good times, thats what Im feeling.

Take out the keys, unlock the door

Now we aint stopping til we hit the floor.

Were going all in, all in tonight.

Well, its too late, oh, well, my buddy, hes gonna tell,

The whole crowd is in, tonight you know how we do,

Its just another weekend hanging with my rowdy friends,

Jack, Jim, all in, full or half, all in,

Everybodys somebody, this is that one party

Gonna talk about it for the rest of the year.

Get a beer, sip some shine, grab a girl, but not mine,

Everything will be fine if you just sing along.

Were going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.

Neon lights and damn good times, thats what Im feeling.

Take out the keys, unlock the door

Now we aint stopping til we hit the floor.

Were going all in, all in tonight.

Were going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.

Neon lights and damn good times, thats what Im feeling.

Take out the keys, unlock the door

Now we aint stopping till we hit the floor.

Were going all in, all in tonight.

Yeah, were going all in, all in tonight.
