

Holding Out

Andy Grammer

When I met you love, I hadn't done the dirty yet.
Called me a unicorn, said that i didn't exist.
Truth is my heart was torn, the v had a couple of rips.
But i was still holding on to the edge with my fingertips.
With a little bit of prayer, little bit of porn, sorry.
Couple long nights of sleeping on my own.
Waiting for the right one to come along, waiting for the right one & now i know that i was
holding out for you.
Yeah I've been holding out for you.
And the neighbors yeah they are haters. '
Cause they say that we go too loud.
I've been holding out for you.
And a couple times thought i might not make it, make it.
Laying on the bed, both of us half naked, naked.
Looking in her eyes, something in my heart said save it.
Here we go again, another awkward conversation.
A little bit of prayer, little bit of porn, sorry.
Couple long nights of sleeping on my own.
Waiting for the right one to come along, waiting for the right one & now i know that i was
holding out for you.
Yeah I've been holding out for you.
And the neighbors yeah they are haters.
Cause they say that we go too loud.
I've been holding out for you.
Cupid's secret is love starts before you meet it
Cupid's secret is love starts before you meet it
Cupid's secret is love starts before you meet it
Cupid's secret is love starts before you meet it
With a little bit of prayer, little bit of porn, sorry.
Couple long nights of sleeping on my own.
Waiting for the right one to come along, waiting for the right one & now i know that i was
holding out for you.
Yeah I've been holding out for you.
And the neighbors yeah they are haters.
Cause they say that we go too loud.
I've been holding out for you.
I've been holding out for you.
