

Opportunity (Sia Version)

Sia

Under the glow of the very bright lights
I turn my face towards the warm night sky and I am not afraid of a thousand eyes and there above
five hundred smiles
Oh I used to think (Oh she used to think) what wouldn't I give (What wouldn't she give)
for a moment like this?
(for a moment like this?)
This moment is gift
Oh, now look at me
and this opportunity
is standing right in front of me
But one thing I know
it's only part luck and so
I'm putting on my best show
Under the spotlight
I'm starting my life
Big dreams becoming real tonight
So look at me and this opportunity
You're witnessing my moment, you see?
Now I find myself here, and it's time
Yes this is real, and it's a gold-mine
I'm not afraid to fly when it's above five hundred smiles
Oh I used to think
(Oh she used to think)
What I wouldn't give (what wouldn't she give)
for a moment like this?
(for a moment like this?)
This moment is gift
Oh, now look at me
and this opportunity
is standing right in front of me
But one thing I know
it's only part luck and so
I'm putting on my best show
Under the spotlight
I'm starting my life

Big dreams becoming real tonight
So, look at me and this opportunity
You're witnessing my moment, you see?
My big opportunity
Yeah, I won't waste it
I guarantee
