

Hate

Ryan Beaver

Lying cheating girl
Wheels in constant motion
Karma is an ocean that'll swallow you whole
May God save your soul

(verse 1)

You must enjoy the pain
Of watchin other people suffer
Sacrifice a lover for something that was not real
Baby how does that feel?

()

I've got news for you little darlin
We all have a judgement day
You're gonna have to face the consequences for the choices you made
When you're praying for salvation just remember one thing
You could've had a heart full of love, before it turned to hate

(verse 2)

I guess I lost my mind
To give you so much of me
I'm ashamed I couldn't see behind your colorless eyes
It's a clever disguise

Lying cheating girl
Wheels in constant motion
Karma is an ocean thatll swallow you whole
May God save your soul
