

100 Times

Jax Jones

[Intro]

Men, they just stick it in every place they can, but for women, women, it is just about security and commitment and whatever the f--- else. But, you're not the jealous type, are you?

Nah, sorry, I'm not

You'd never be jealous about me, have you? And why haven't you been jealous about me? Very sure of yourself aren't you?

[Chorus]

I told you a hundred times

Baby, I'll never be the one you want a hundred times

Baby, I'll never be the one you want to hold it down

Baby, I'll never be the one you want to hold it down

Baby, I'll never be the one you want

[Refrain]

I can't hold you, I can't hold you
