

Classy Girls

The Lumineers

Well she was standing in the bar
I said, "Hello, how do you do?"
She handed me a beer with a kangaroo
She spoke of places I had never been
That she had traveled to
And we slowed danced along to faster tunes
I made her laugh, I made a pass, I showed her my half dollar ring
She said, "That's pretty cool
But classy girls don't kiss in bars, you fool"
No they don't
So later on the crowd calmed down
And I believe it was as if something drew me closer to her lips
So picture my surprise when I had tried to lean in for a kiss
She just smiled and turned her head down
I asked her, "Why?" and she replied
"It was nothing I was doing wrong, its just what it is"
Oh, classy girls don't kiss in bars like this
No, classy girls dont kiss in bars
Boys will break their backs and hearts
But its alright, the hardest part is through Oh through
Oh through
Oh through
The hardest part is through
