

One Million Bullets

Sia

Under the moonlight
Weathering with your warm embrace
I feel so safe here
Baby we're worth the wait
Yeah I picked the wrong kind
Time after time
I drank from the poisoned wine
Yeah I picked the wrong kind
But baby you're alright
Yeah baby I've seen the light
I got a feeling, I got a feeling
Danger is coming, a danger is coming
A danger is coming,
Oh oh oh
I got a feeling, I got a feeling
The war has been won here, the war has been won here
OhhhhhUnder the moonlight, under your moonlit gaze
I know that I'd take one million bullets babe
Yeah, one million bullets could come my way
But I want you to know that I'd take a million babeHow many would you take?
How many would you take?
How many would you take?
How many would you take?
Cause I'd take, one million bullets babe
If you were a poet and I was a faultless muse
If you were the hero, yeah, I'd take a bullet for you
So take me in your arms, take me for all I have Cause I'd give my life for one of your belly laughsI got a feeling, I got a feeling
Danger is coming, a danger is coming
A danger is coming,
Oh oh oh
I got a feeling, I got a feeling
The war has been won here, the war has been won here
OhhhhhUnder the moonlight, under your moonlit gaze
I know that I'd take one million bullets babe
Yeah, one million bullets should come my way
But I want you to know that, I'd take a million babeHow many would you take?
How many would you take?
How many would you take?
How many would you take?
Cause I'd take one million bullets babe
