

Shining Star

Bebe Rexha

Do it again, ready, yeah, one more time?
Yeah
And keep going, and keep going like this this this thing
Yaaas
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, whatever, it'll be double long
That's hot, let me hear it back She was a bad girl, he was a good boy
She played with fire while he played inside the rain
She gets so selfish and he was selfless
He played by books, she never liked to play it safe But he fell in love with her fucked up ways
With her drunken days, yeah, he still stayed
Yeah, he fell in love with her twisted dreams
And all in between, and he'd still sing
Baby, you're a shining star
I like you just like you are
Baby, you're a shining star
I like you just like you are Head underwater, no one could save her
She played with hell, she held her breath, she liked the pain
Her world was crumbling, but she did nothing
She numbed herself so she would never feel a thing But he fell in love with her fucked up ways
With her drunken days, yeah, he still stayed
Yeah, he fell in love with her twisted dreams
And all in between, and he'd still sing Baby, you're a shining star
I like you just like you are
Baby, you're a shining star
I like you just like you are
You know you'll always be my baby
Don't cry
You know your crazy doesn't phase me
Don't lie
'Cause baby, you're a shining star
I like you just like you are
