Honest

Bazzi

If we have just been honestGonna turn my rader to seen so
Just to let you know I won't respond
Darling ask me to do this
But I'm not looking for excusesAnd not deleting all your info
Cause I heard about the info
Always know that you get ruthless
But I ever thought that you could do this OhWhen I fucked up all of these again, you're the intro
That was my true, why you gotta pick end though?
I was selfish in the way that I acted
I keep doing things just to get your reaction
Ya, I wonder if he still hit you now, fucking you like I used to
I know you think about all the things that we did when he's with you
And do you feel no shame?
Does it make you feel the same?
But we have got what we wanted
Oh, if we have just been honest
Why can't we just be honest
If we have just been honestRemember, ya
Late night, smokin', we under stop projectors
Look in my eyes where the smiles are forever
I think we both know what is this supposed to be goin'
But the sex is too good we got caught up in the moonlight
Now you took my best friend turn him into my opponent, oh yeahDid you forget that I gave you the intro
That was my true, why you gotta pick end though?
I was selfish in the way that I acted
I keep doing things just to get your reaction
Ya, I wonder if he still hit you now, fucking you like I used to
I know you think about all the things that we did when he's with you
And do you feel no shame?
Does it make you feel the same?
But we have got what we wanted
Oh, if we have just been honest
Why can't we just be honest
If we have just been honestIf we have just been honestMaybe is the pills
Maybe is the drugs
Maybe is the pride
