

Getting Ready

This Is Not America

[Verse 1]

I'm getting ready to go to the jungle
I'm getting ready to run
I'm getting ready to start a rumble
I think that I'm the chosen one

Come join my personal show off riot
And please invite anyone
Help me to let my integrity sell out
My armageddon days have come
Show me fake
And I'll show you phony
Show me forever
And I'll be yours to keep for good

I'm getting ready to go to the jungle
I'm getting ready to run
I'm getting ready to start a rumble
I think that I'm the chosen one

You won't see me begging on my knees
You won't hear me crying, baby please
You won't find me washed up on the shore
Cause I just don't care no more

Come join my personal show off riot
And please invite anyone
Help me to let my integrity sell out
My armageddon days have come

Show me your heart
And I'll show you mine
Show me love
And I'll show you money

I'm getting ready to go to the jungle
I'm getting ready to run
I'm getting ready to start a rumble
I think that I'm the chosen one
You won't see me begging on my knees
You won't hear me crying, baby please
You won't find me washed up on the shore
Cause I just don't care no more

You won't see me begging on my knees
You won't hear me crying, baby please
You won't find me washed up on the shore
Cause I just don't care no more
