

Rabbit Hole

blink-182

[Verse 1: Mark Hoppus]

Dear head, shut up
I can't listen no more
It's late, so shut up
Is one night too much to ask for?

[Pre-Chorus: Mark Hoppus]

You are a haunted house
You're superstitious
You are the coldest stone carved marble faces

[Chorus: Mark Hoppus]

I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole
I'm barely standing on the ground
All the hints that you leave are too hard to believe at all
I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole

[Bridge: Mark Hoppus]

With you, with you, with you, with you again
With you, with you, with you, with you again

[Verse 2: Matt Skiba]

This bed, on fire
I can't sleep here no more
Too late and tired
Dreaming down on the floor

[Pre-Chorus 2: Matt Skiba]

I am a haunted house
I'm superstitious
I am a cardboard cutout, old and faded

[Chorus: Mark Hoppus]

I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole
I'm barely standing on the ground
All the hints that you leave are too hard to believe at all
I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole

[Bridge: Mark Hoppus]

With you, with you, with you, with you again

With you, with you, with you, with you again
With you, with you, with you, with you again
With you, with you, with you, with you again

[Outro: Mark Hoppus and Matt Skiba]

I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole

I won't fall down, I won't fall down

I'm barely standing on the ground

Barely standing on the ground

All the hints that you leave are too hard to believe at all

I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole

I won't fall down that fucking rabbit hole
