

Oil On Water

Bastille

[Verse 1]

So her fingers ran away with themselves
'Till everything was documented
Her mind it was reaching out
To put into words what their bodies had done

[Chorus]

They lie together, oh
Oil on water
And they lie upon her, oh
Someone's daughter

[Verse 2]

It's a catalogue of modern mistakes
Her words and legs wrapped around each man
Leaving stories like digital crumbs
As she turns these nights into literature

[Chorus]

They lie together, oh
Oil on water
And they lie upon her, oh
Someone's daughter

[Verse 3]

When they leave she sets about writing down
Awkward body games all over town
Warm affection runs through every word
We're screens away but we're laughing with her

[Chorus]

They lie together, oh
Oil on water
And they lie upon her, oh
Someone's daughter

They lie upon her, oh

Oil on water
